

PROCLAMATION - EMPLOY INDIAN CITIZEN WEEK

SPONSORED BY SHARE SOUTH DAKOTA

Whereas, The American Indian as the original American citizen and now we a part of them in the common devotion and loyalty to our state and our country, and

Whereas, many South Dakotans of Indian American Ancestry are unemployed and in need of employment to better provide for themselves and their families, and

Whereas, many of these South Dakotans of Indian American Ancestry desire to obtain employment and are qualified for many types of employment, and

Whereas, the employment of more South Dakotans of Indian American Ancestry would not only benefit this important segment of our population but would be of benefit to the economy of the State as a whole and inure to the benefit of all citizens of South Dakota, and Therefore, be it resolved, that thru Share South Dakota as the sponsoring organization, the citizens of South Dakota be urged to give their attention to the economic need of the Indian people that there be afforded for them a greater opportunity for employment in their daily living.

Be it further resolved, that I, Archie Gubbrud, as Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 15-22 as and urge all employers to investigate the possibilities of employing and if possible employ one or more fellow South Dakotans of Indian American Ancestry.

Done at Pierre in the State of South Dakota this 3 day of May, 1961.
